

ASSEMBLY BILL

No. 674

Introduced by Assembly Member Klehs

February 17, 2005

An act to amend Section 2062 of the Labor Code, relating to car washes.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

AB 674, as introduced, Klehs. Car washes: employer registration.

Existing law requires employers engaged in the business of car washing and polishing to annually register with the Labor Commissioner and prohibits those employers from conducting business unless they have registered. An employer may not register with the commissioner unless he or she has satisfied certain specified conditions.

This bill makes technical, nonsubstantive changes to existing law.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: no.
State-mandated local program: no.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

- 1 SECTION 1. Section 2062 of the Labor Code is amended to
2 read:
3 2062. The commissioner may not register or renew the
4 registration of an employer in any of the following
5 circumstances:
6 (a) The employer has not fully satisfied any final judgment for
7 unpaid wages ~~due~~ owed to an employee or former employee of a
8 business for which the employer is required to register under this 9 chapter.

- 1 (b) The employer has failed to remit the proper amount of
2 contributions required by the Unemployment Insurance Code or
3 the Employment Development Department—~~had~~ has made an
4 assessment for those unpaid contributions against the employer
5 that has become final and the employer has not fully paid the 6 amount of delinquency for those unpaid contributions.
- 7 (c) The employer has failed to remit the amount of Social 8 Security and Medicare tax contributions required by the Federal
9 Insurance Contributions Act (FICA) to the Internal Revenue
10 Service and the employer has not fully paid the amount or 11 delinquency for those unpaid contributions.
